

Please have VRS reimbursement rates that will cover costs for the recruitment & training of qualified interpreters for the VRS environment. Rates should be adequate to cover further research & development efforts to improve the quality and access of VRS including on how to make VRS satisfy the need of sign language users while making emergency calls.